Policy on Directors Appointment and Remuneration of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and other employees:

Introduction:

In accordance with Section 178 of the Companies Act, 2013 the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has formulated Remuneration Policy (“the policy”).

The objective of the policy is to ensure that Executive Directors and other employees are sufficiently compensated for their performance. The Policy seeks to provide criteria for determining qualifications, positive attributes and independence of a director.

Remuneration Policy :

Directors:

Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall recommend the remuneration, including the commission based on the net profits of the Company for the Non-Executive Directors and Wholetime Directors and other Executive Directors. This will be then approved by the Board and shareholders. Prior approval of shareholders will be obtained wherever applicable in case of remuneration to non-executive directors.

The Company pays remuneration by way of Sitting Fees ,salary, perquisites and allowances (fixed component) and variable pay to Wholetime Director. Salary is paid within the range approved by the Shareholders. Annual increments effective 1st April each year, as recommended by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and is approved by the Board. Within the prescribed ceiling, the perquisites package is approved by the Remuneration Committee.

The remuneration paid to Executive Directors is determined keeping in view the industry benchmark and the relative performance of the Company to the industry performance. Perquisites and retirement benefits are paid according to the Company policy as applicable to all employees.

Independent Non-Executive Directors are appointed based on their professional expertise in their individual capacity as independent professionals. Independent Non-Executive Directors receive sitting fees for attending the meeting of the Board and Board Committees and commission, if any ,as approved by the Board and shareholders.

The remuneration by way of commission paid to the Independent Non-Executive directors is determined periodically & reviewed based on the industry benchmarks.
